Numb. 3368

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 22. to Monday July 26. 1697.

Naples, June 24. N. S.

THE Popes and Malteſe Galleys are ſailed together to join the Venetian Fleet in the Levant; with the latter are gone about 1200 Land-Forces, and a great many Knights of Malta, as Volontiers. The Galleys of this Kingdom are now fitting-out, being ordered to join with thoſe of Sicily, and to ſail towards Genoua and Final, to convoy ſome Regiments, that are intended to be ſent from the laſt of theſe Places to Catalonia.

Genoua, June 30. On the 28th of this month arrived here 3 Galleys of the Duke of Turſis's Squadron, and the Galleys of Sicily are daily expected in this Port. A Veſſel is arrived here from the Coaſt of Barbary, the Maſter whereof reports, that the War continues between the King of Morocco and the Government of Argiers, and that the Dey was gone into the Field with a conſiderable Army; The Algerines have ſent ſeveral Men-of-War to join the Ottoman Fleet in the Levant; and the Tuniſins and Tripolins have done the like, the Turks ſupplying them with Money for this Service.

Venice, July 5. The laſt week departed hence ſeveral Veſſels, having on-Board about 300 Soldiers, with a Supply of Ammunition for Dalmatia: And a great Convoy is now getting ready, to carry Proviſions and other Neceſſaries for the Venetian Fleet and Army in the Levant; According to the laſt Advices from thence the Captain-General intended to go to Sea about the latter end of June, and in the mean time had ſent ſome of the Principal Officers of the Land-Forces to view the new Fortifications he had ordered to be made near the Iſthmus of Corinth, and to give ſuch further Directions, as ſhould be found neceſſary for the Security of that Paſs; Tho, conſidering how ſmall a number of Troops the Enemy are in a condition to bring together in thoſe parts, there is very little reaſon to apprehend their making any Attempt againſt the Morea. The Morlaques give the Turks a great deal of Diſturbance; and the laſt Letters from Dalmatia ſay, they had made Incurſions in 3 ſeveral Bodies, and were all returned with good ſtore of Booty. The Letters from Rome give an account of the Death of Cardinal Denhoff, ſo that there are now Eight Vacancies in the College of Cardinals; and there is a Diſcourſe, that the Pope will ſhortly make a Promotion.

Ceuta in Barbary, July 1. The Governor of this Place has received ſeveral Advices of the great Deſire the Moors have at preſent to make a Peace or Truce with this Gariſon, having occaſion to make uſe elſewhere of the Troops now employed in this Siege; There have already paſſed ſome Meſſages between the Alcayde Ali, who commands them, and our Governor, and we have ground to believe, 'twill not be long before the Enemy withdraw from before this place.

Kinſale, July 16. This day arrived here the Haſtings, Capt. Draper Commander; from Wexford, with ſeveral Merchant-Veſſels under his Convoy. The laſt week came-in here the New-Nasbit of London, burthen 300 Tuns, from Nevis.

Dublin, July 20. The Lords-Juſtices and Council have prepared and tranſmitted